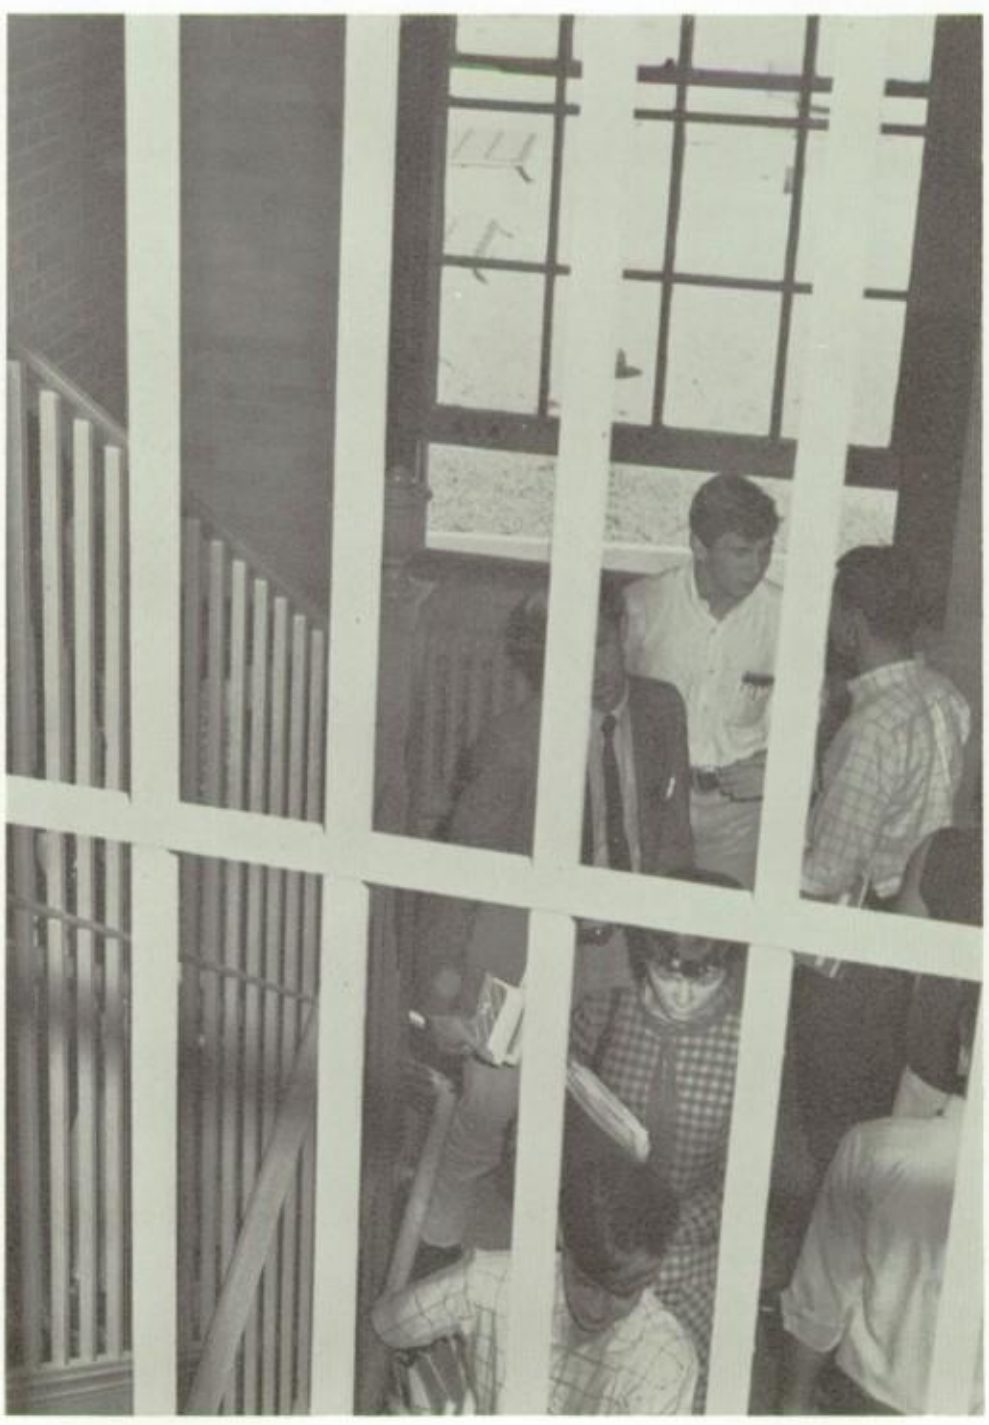
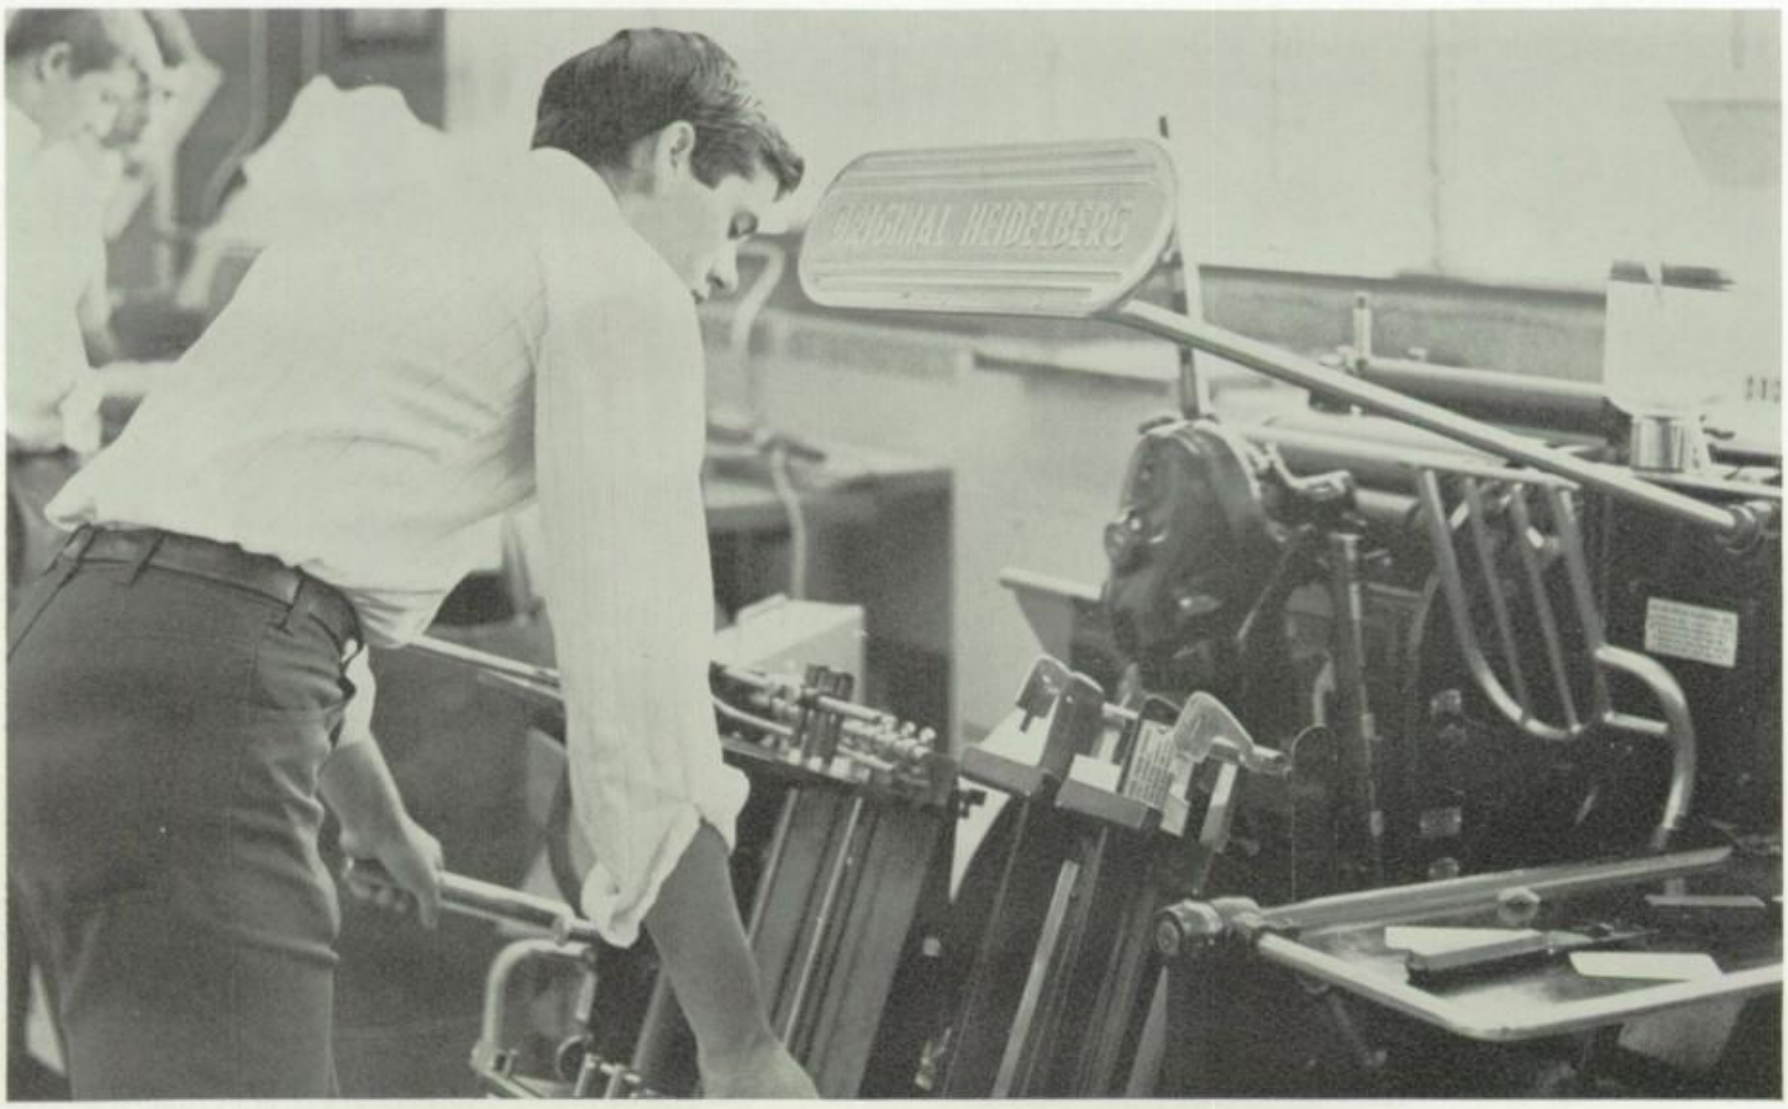
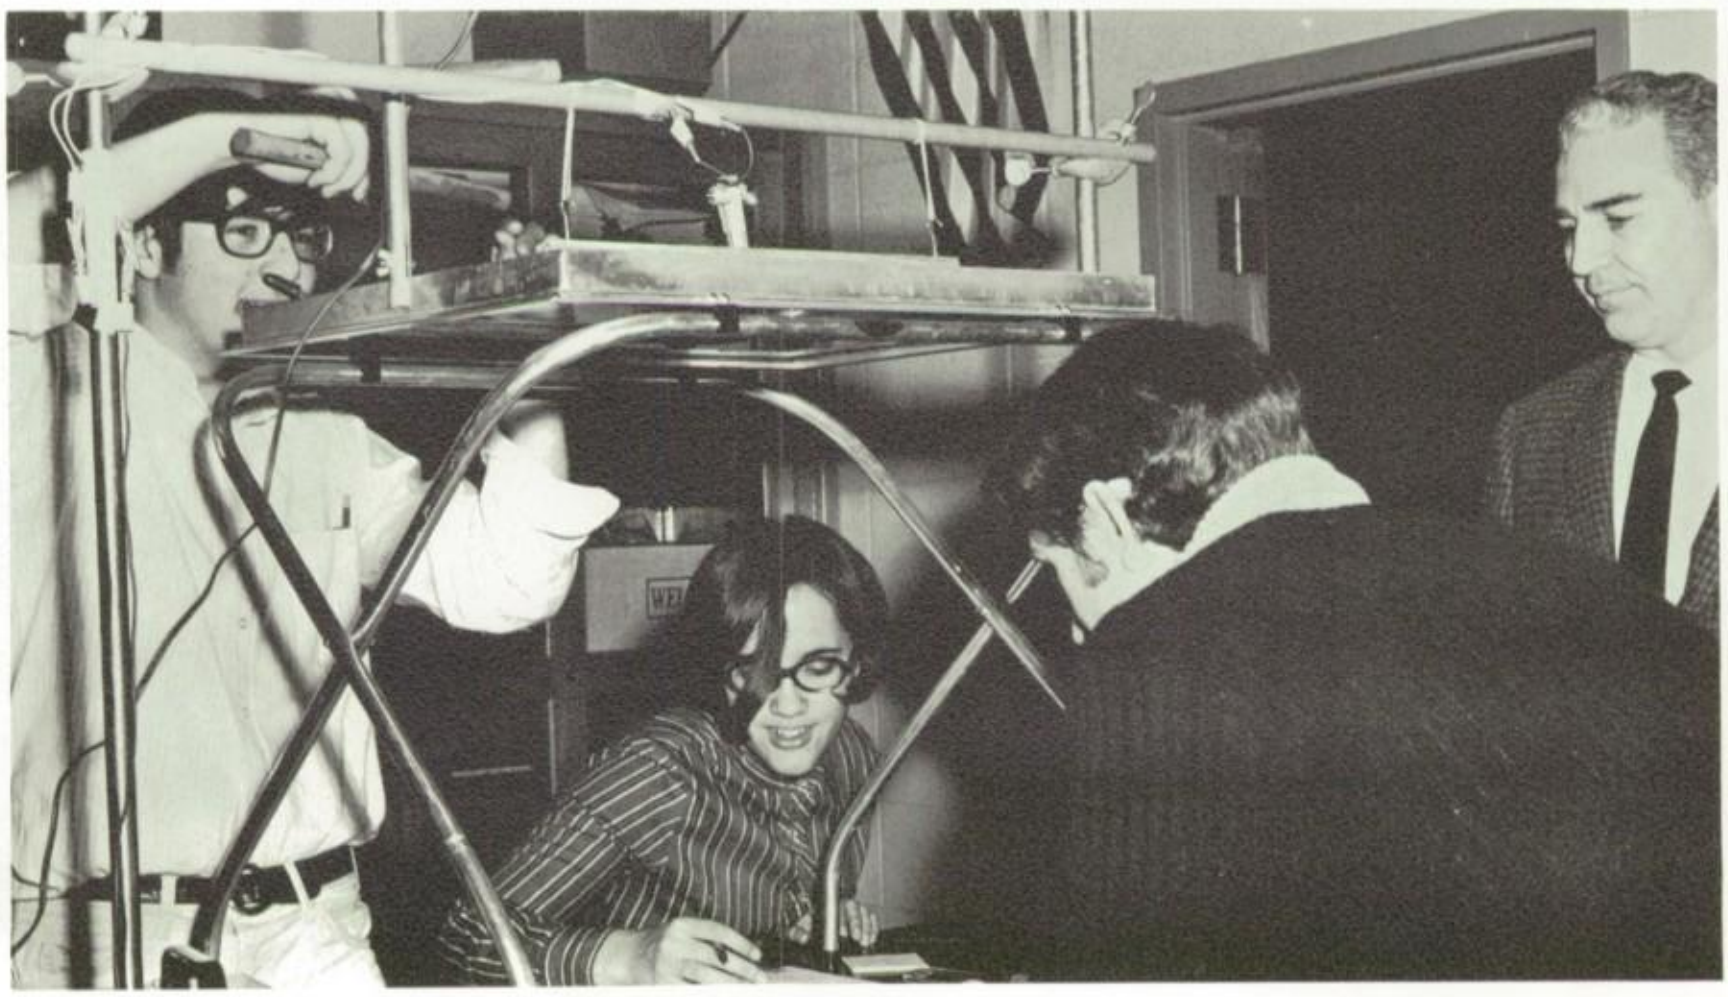
Our education stems from a paradox: even though we are stimulated towards greater intellectual freedom, we are controlled and dominated by the confines of established structures.



Within these boundaries we are subjected to a limited growth in living and learning. This contact with society and school gives us the first source of education: experience.





For the large part the container, interpreter, and the judge of experience is memory . . .

The smell and taste
of things remain poised
a long time,

more
substantial,

more
per sis
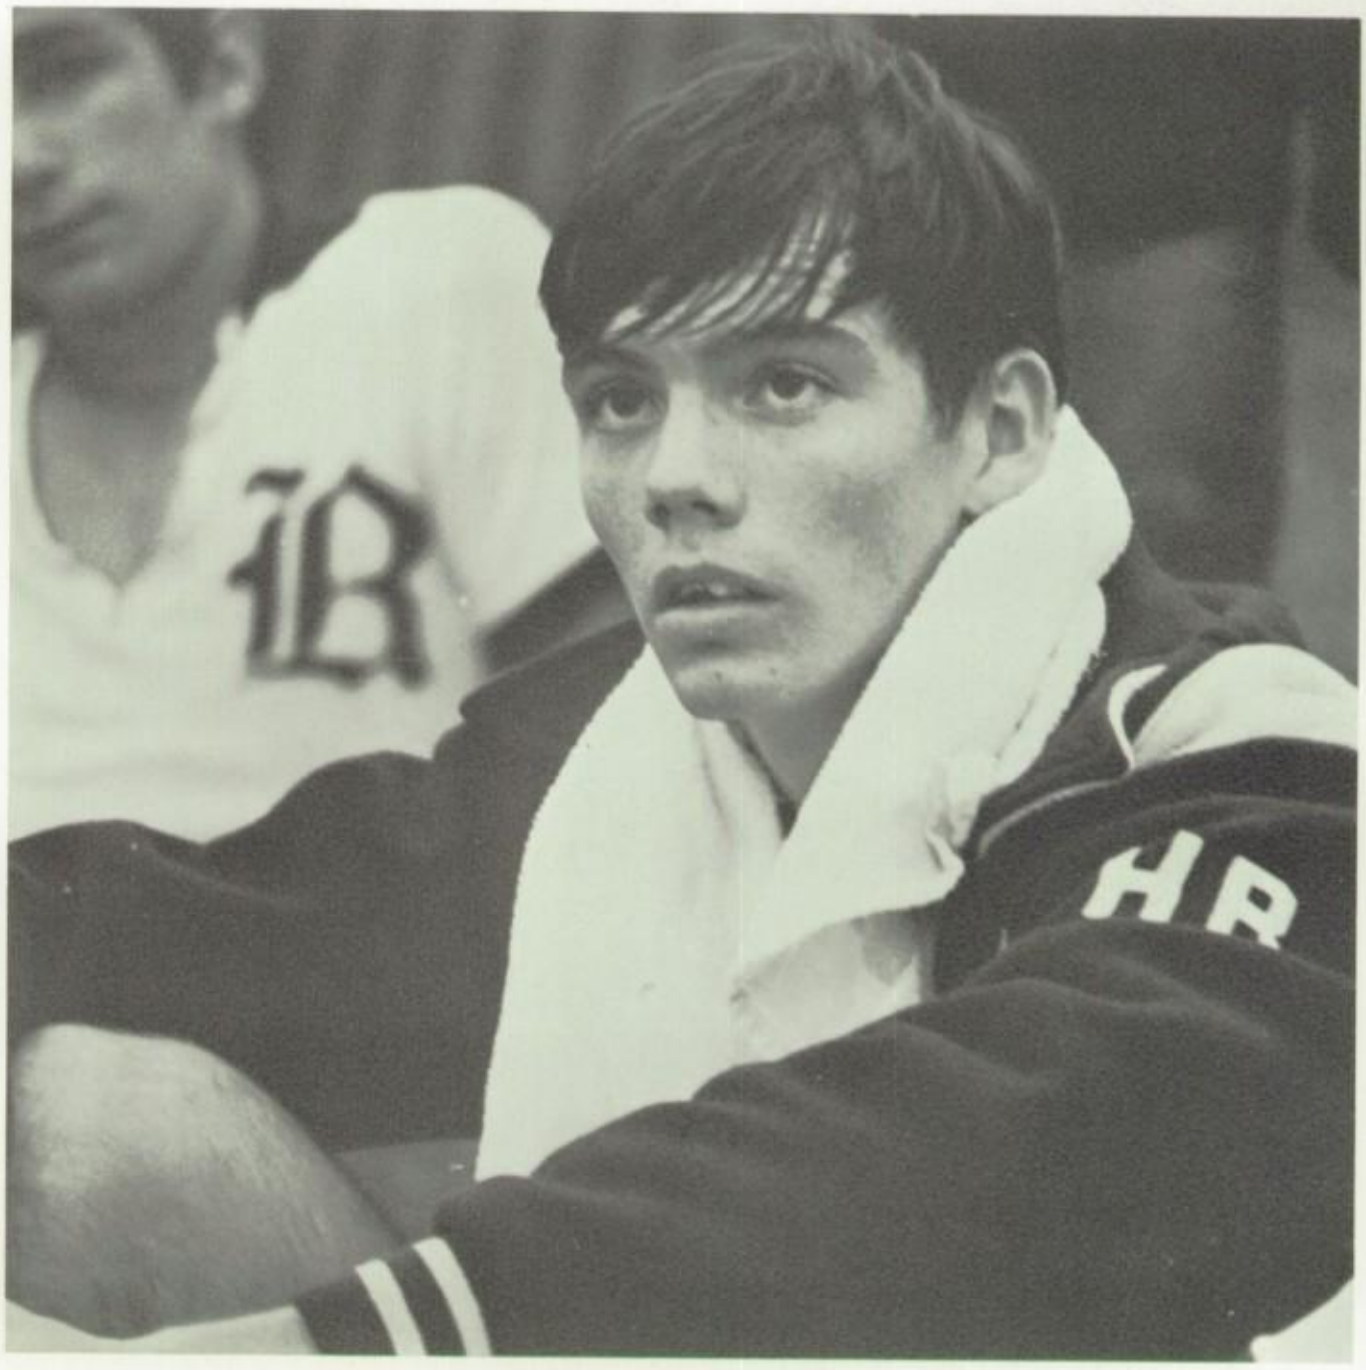
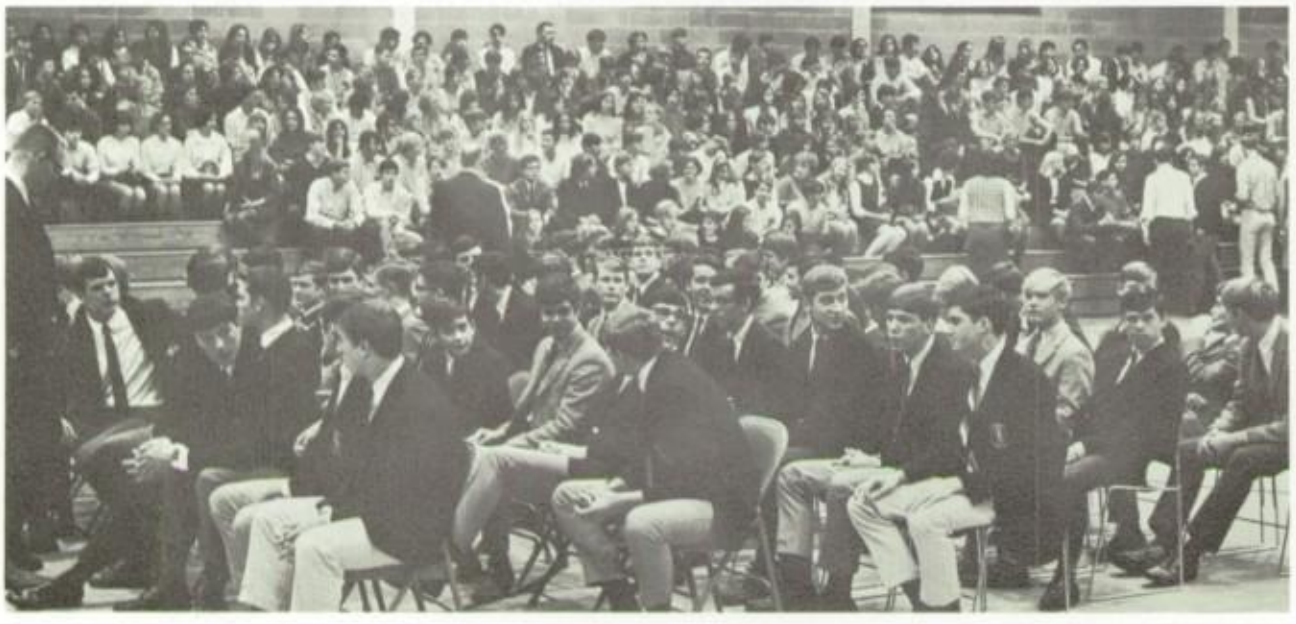
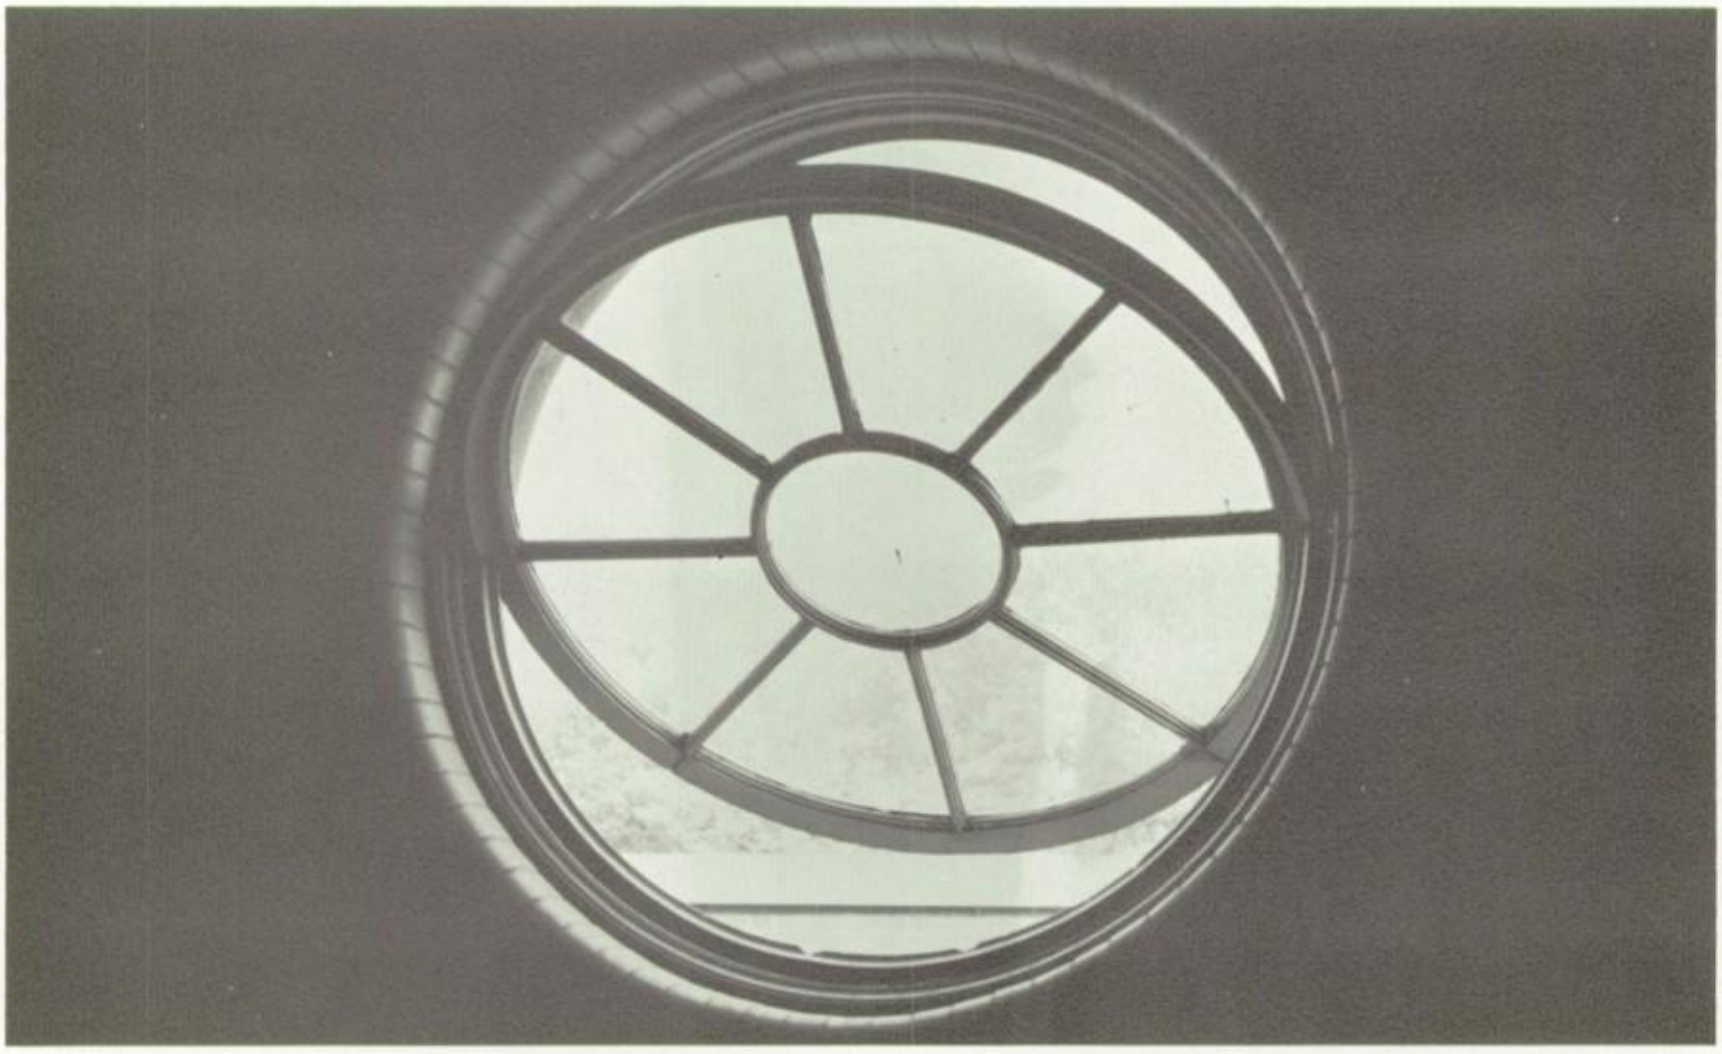
tent,

and
more
faithful,





with more vitality even after things are broken and scattered,

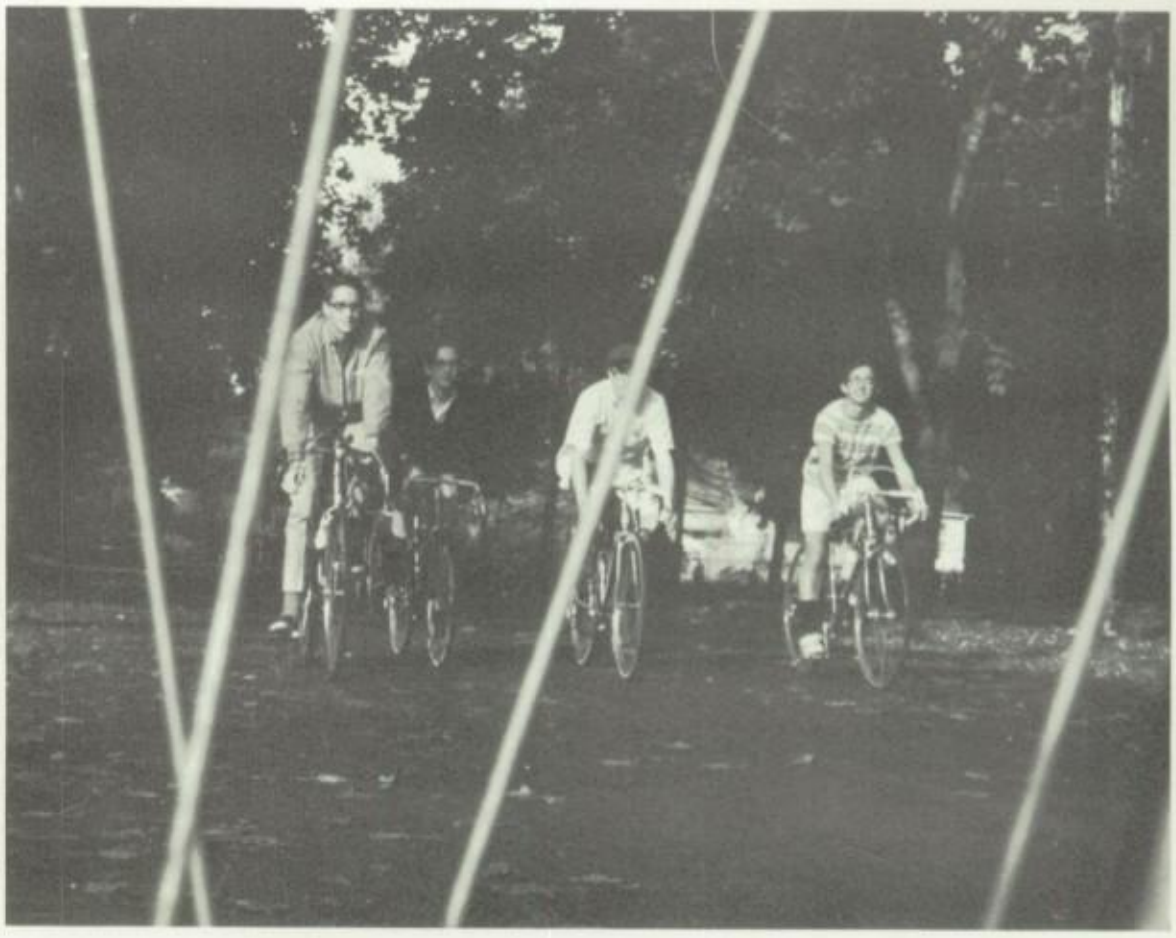


still,

alone,

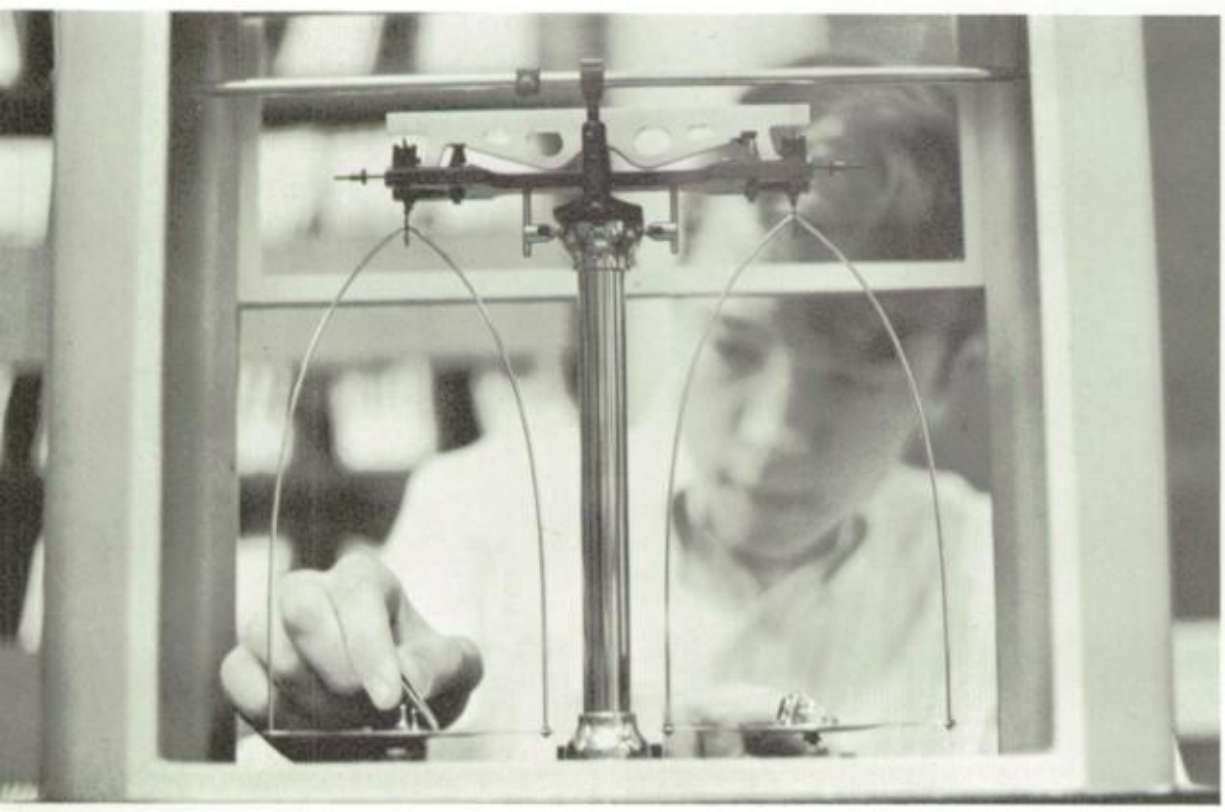
more fragile,

waiting and hoping
for their moment,
amid the ruins of the rest,



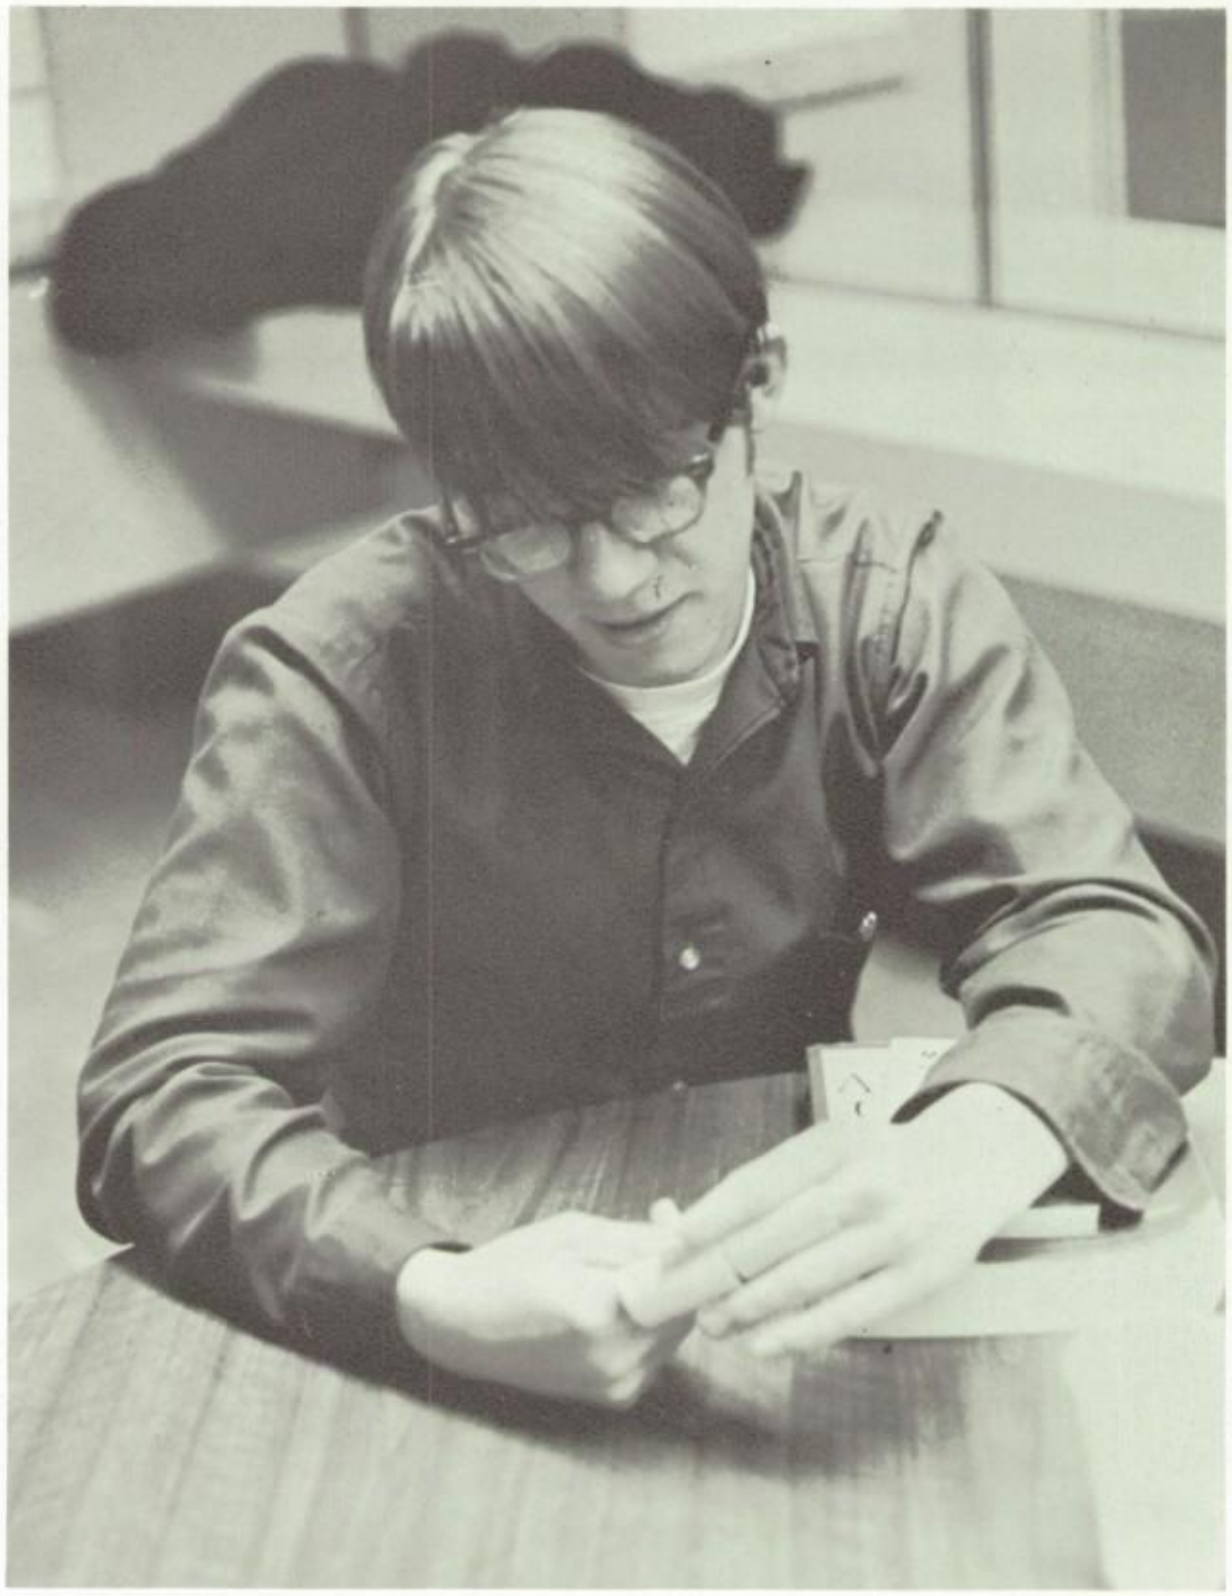
and bearing unfaltering, in the tiny and almost impalpable drop
of their essence,

the vast structure of
recollection.



From our experience we derive our own essence—
the nature of our being.

With an understanding of our essence we find the direction for our life in regard to such relative values as success, security, and happiness.



Experience however must be sifted and edited to find a keystone to the essence, the hidden image, of ourselves—knowledge is a most effective tool to use in this search.

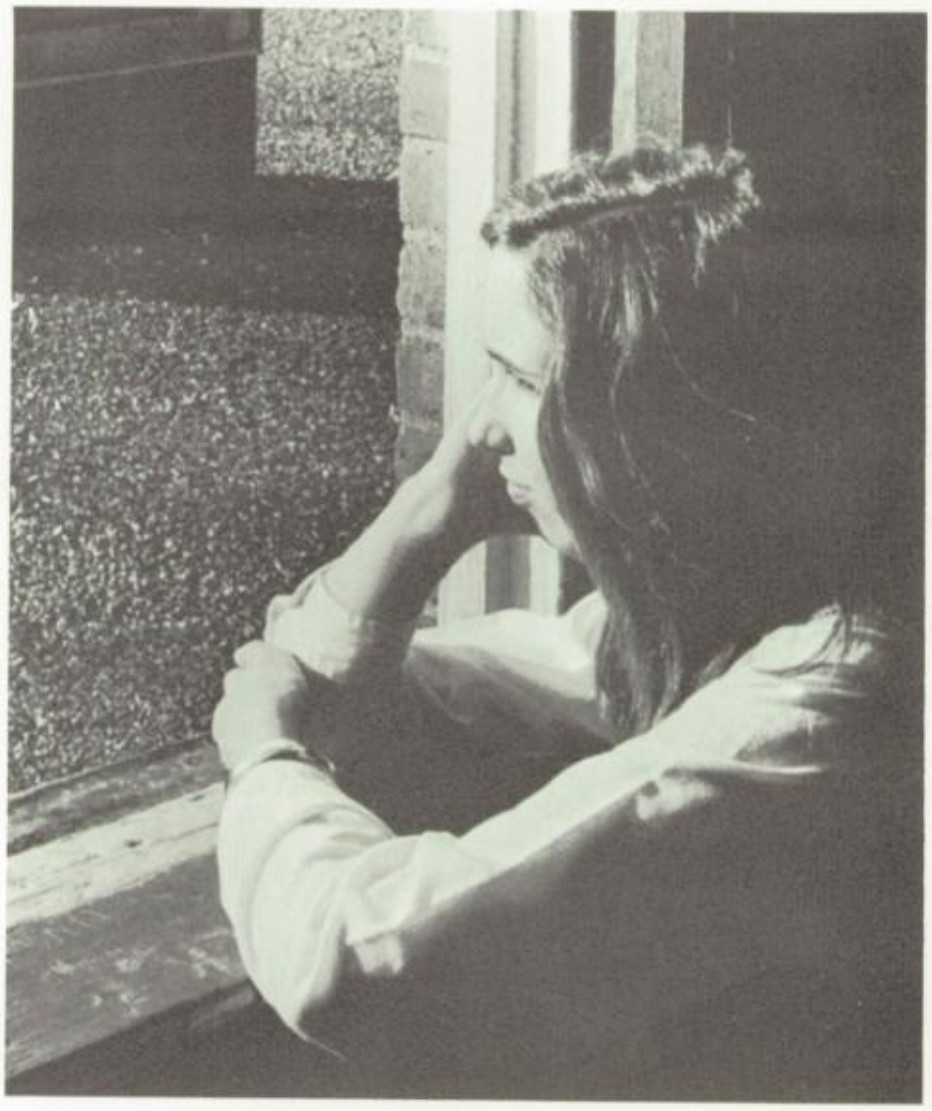
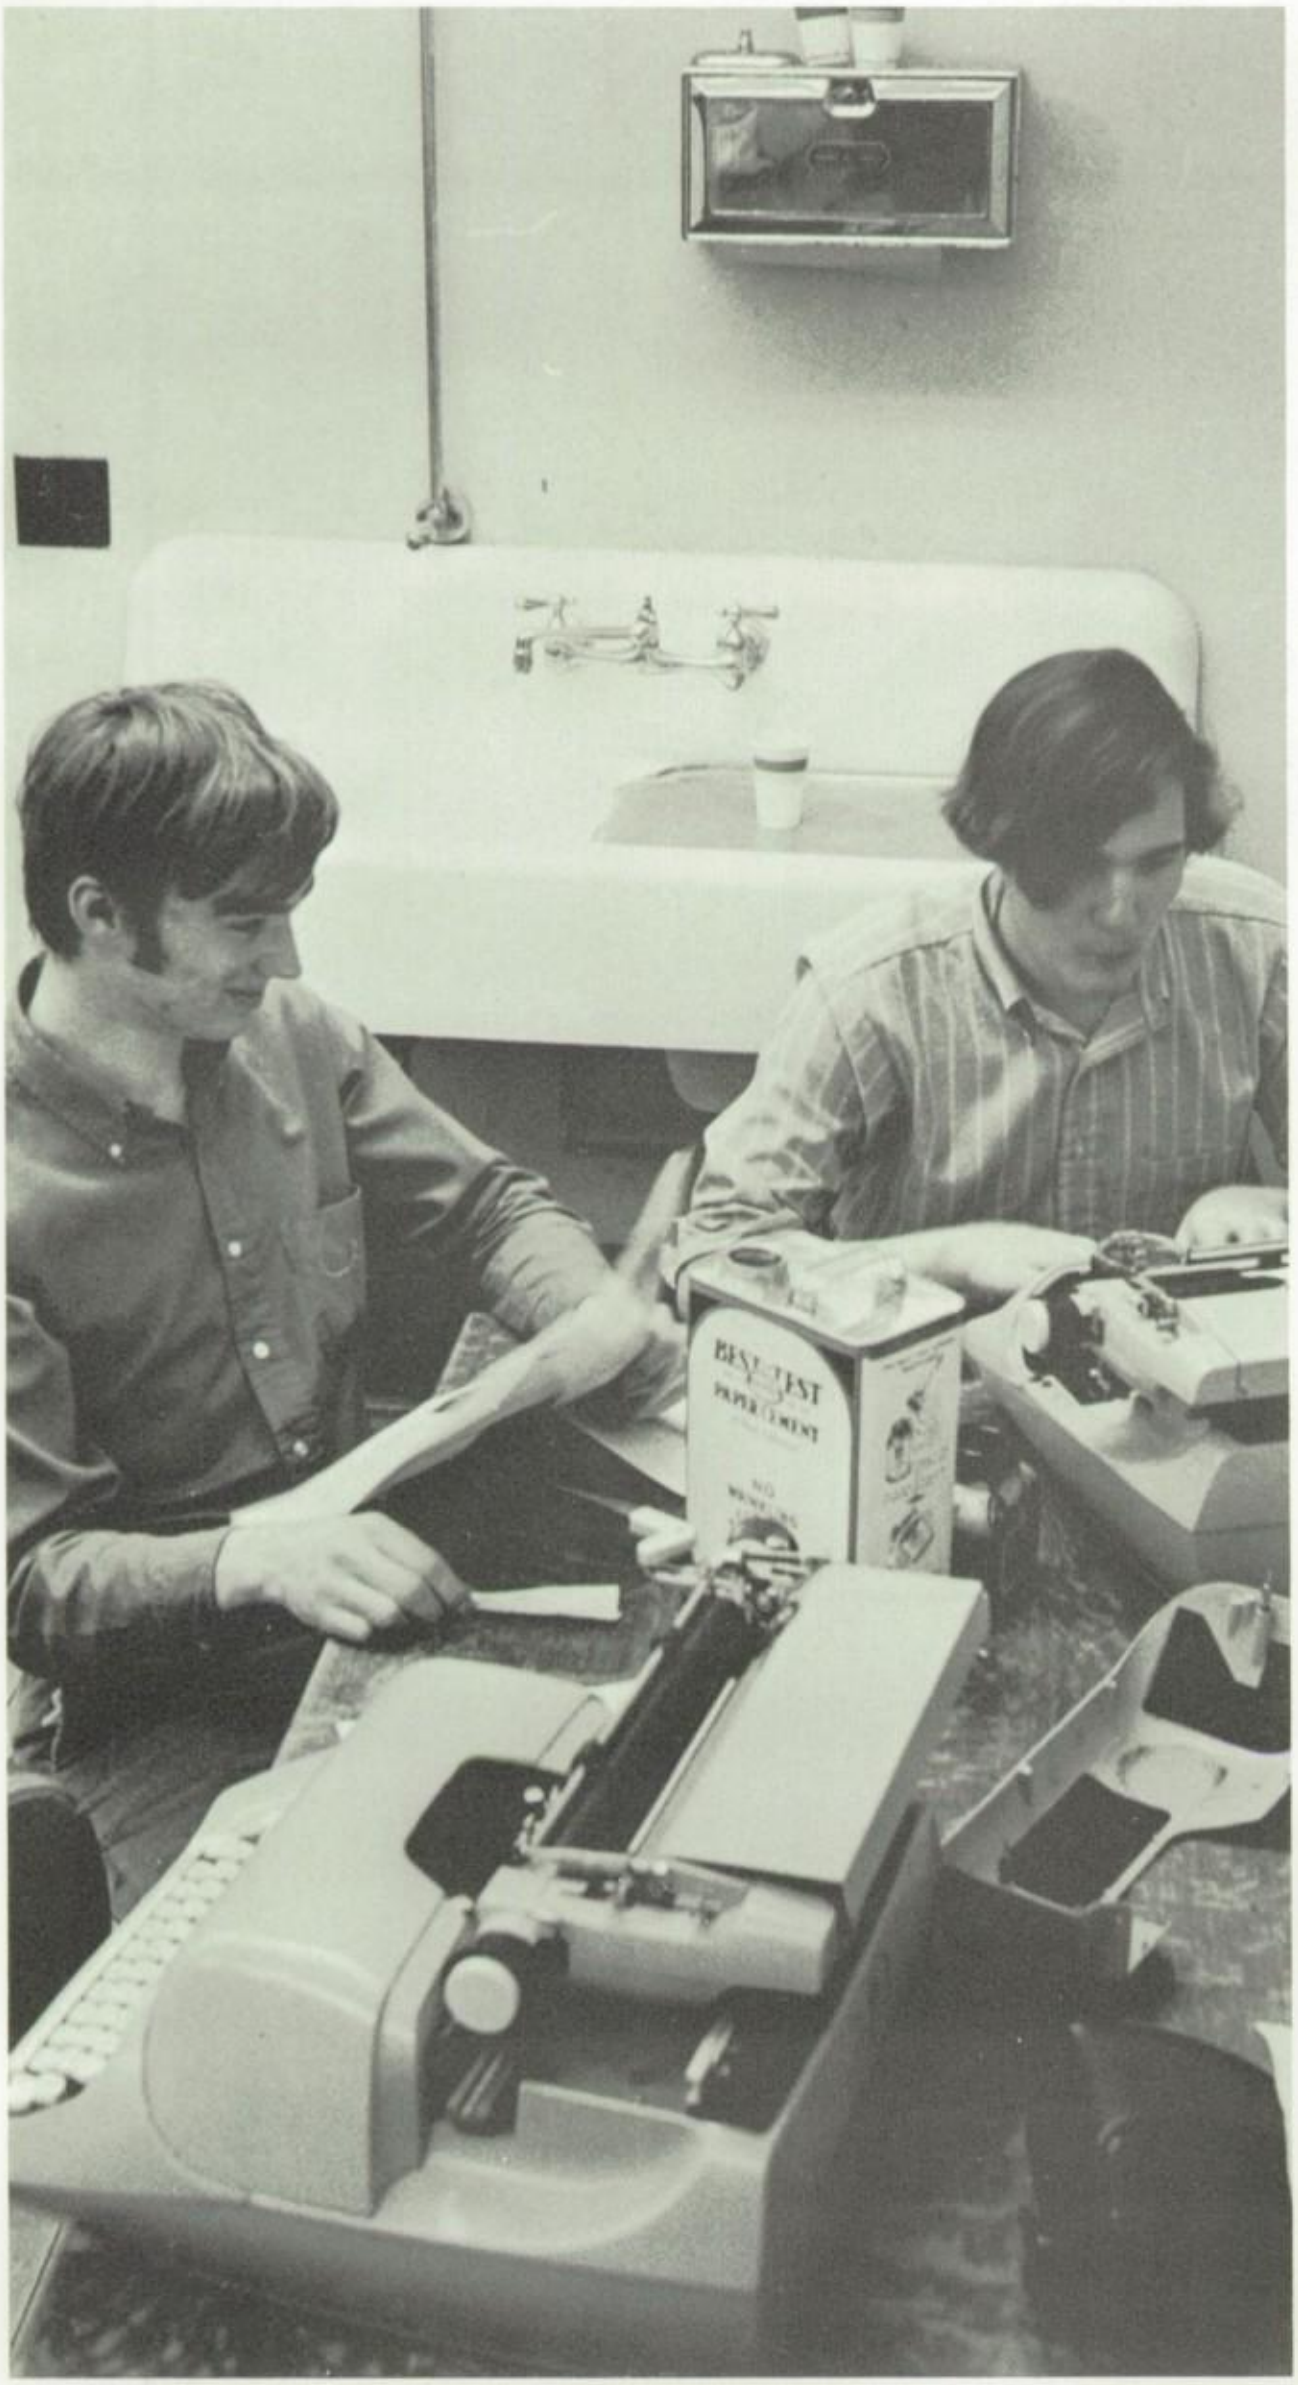
Self-knowledge
shows us the aim, the goal
which is so fundamental.

But just as experience
gives self-knowledge,



so knowledge can give
experience of the self,
the true fulfillment
of the essence.



Knowledge gives the power to create meaningful experience. But whereas knowledge is an instrument, experience is an end in itself—

that however does not lessen the former's value.

Through the combination of knowledge and experience, education gives us the power to discover and fulfill our selves and our potential. The boundaries set up in giving education are justified by this all important liberation.

ATHLETICS

Hours of hard practice paid off in 1969 when a trio of outstanding seniors, Russ Strait, Bob Hopken, and Bob Luhmann, led a primarily senior varsity football team to a 7-1-1 record, the best ever achieved under Coach Roger Sweeney, Ridgewood News Coach of the Year. Only a close 14-15 loss to the league power house, Wayne Valley, and a tie, 19-19, with Passaic Valley blemished a season marked by a decisive victory over rival Fairlawn.

VARSITY FOOTBALL—First Row; G. Jones, G. Leinhart, B. Brookwell, R. McGill, B. Herrold, B. Hopken and B. Luhmann, Co-captains, B. McIlvaine, P. Nizza, T. Robinson, G. Manz. Second row: J. SOCCER COACH—Lloyd Simpson

The soccer team had a disappointing season posting a 1-10-5 record; however, the team was completely shut out of only a few games, and most were either tied or decided by one goal. Many good players and a number of returning lettermen filled the ranks of the team but they could not always come through with the key goals. The players did continue to exert great effort and their desire to win remained strong throughout the season despite the weak won-lost record.

FIELD HOCKEY

The girls hockey team jumped into the season with its usual zest for the sport. Practice and a competitive spirit helped the team win most of its games, though several of these victories came unexpectedly.

CROSS COUNTRY

In his first year as Cross Country Coach, Roy Terranova faced a lack of experienced runners, except for seniors Bert Cullen and Bob Kershbergen. For this reason, although the team was marked by a determination to win, the final result was a disappointing 1-8 record in the NNJIL. Prospects for next year look good with the return of many good runners who gained valuable experience this year.

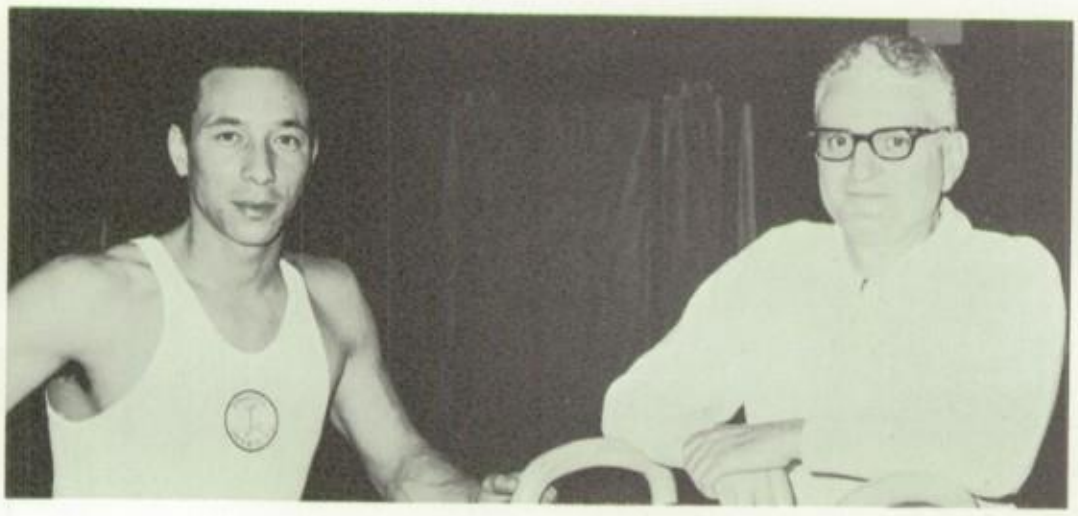
GYMNASTICS

Although the gymnastics team, in its initial season as a varsity sport, compiled a winless record, the record fails to show that the opponents were usually established teams and that the meet scores were generally close. It also fails to reflect the progress made by the team during the year, as shown in fine post-season tournament showings. Although seniors such as Paul Bayer and Captain Russ Packard did exceptionally well this year, the body of the team was juniors who should definitely place well next year.

GYMNASTICS TEAM—First row: C. Cederquist, P. Wise, J. Nizza, D. Arnesen, N. Gaston, J. Feigne, M. Coan, C. Beneby, P. Bayer. Second row: Coach Nizza, L. Edison, T. Nizza, P. Drigs, E. Perry, B. Reinhardt, R. Timm, R. Deutsch, R. Packard, J. Wood, D. Mackey, R. Sissman, C. Hobbs, E. Larsen, K. Gray, Coach Napier.



GYMNASTICS COACHES—Tony Napier, Dominick Nizza.

WRESTLING

Three years of hard work paid off for the nine varsity seniors this year as Co-captains Bruce Hamlin and Kurt Casper led the team to a 9-2 record, the best in many years under Richard Lowell, named "Coach of the Year". The team lost only to the league powerhouse Bergenfield by a small margin and to non-league Pascack Hills. Jay Hubelbank, Bob Hopken, Rick Bowe, and Rick Zizzo were the four District I champions selected Ridgewood in wrestling.

WRESTLING COACH—Richard Lowell

JUNIOR VARSITY WRESTLING—First row: A. Periale, G. Saterson, M. Casey, A. Burrows, S. Nolen, D. Goetze. Second row: K. Casper, M. Kirkwood, B. Tennant, L. Lange, D. Leverich, S. Gratian.

BOWLING

Bowling achieved varsity status this year under the coaching of Mr. Vallone. Competition against other schools in our league consisted of two three-man teams. Although this first year's results were not too favorable, next year's future looks very promising.

BOWLING COACH—Leonard Vallone

GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM—First row: L. Ruggieri, L. Ennis, J. Nienaber, B. Erskine, M. Murray. Second row: Boegal, K. McLean, L. Kemp, J. Wischhusen, J. Stewart, B. Palen.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The girls interscholastic basketball team was revived this year early in the season. Much practice, a high morale, and superior coaching led the team to a victorious finish, as the team was undefeated in all of its games.
